OILS Expo: May 1, 2015

Proposal submission deadline: April 13, 2015

Explore, Connect, and Build Knowledge at the OILS Expo

Each year OILS (Organization, Information, and Learning Sciences) faculty and students gather and present their research and applied projects as part of their academic and professional development. The Expo provides an opportunity for students to support, share, and learn from one another.

In addition, the Expo is another way for attendees to learn about OILS. Students will showcase their work to other students, faculty, OILS alumni, employers, and community leaders. Students are asked to invite others to attend who have an interest in seeing your work and that of your OILS colleagues.

Where will the OILS Expo be held?

The 2015 OILS Expo is on Friday, May 1st from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. on the second floor lobby in Zimmerman Library. Poster sessions will start at 5:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served at 5:30 p.m. The event will conclude with recognition of best Instructional Technology and Organizational Development presentations at 6:30 p.m.

What kind of presentations will there be at the OILS Expo?

The OILS Expo will cover a wide range of subjects and interests from the OILS community. Students of the OILS programs are invited to submit proposals.

Proposals for posters will be selected from one of two categories (Instructional Technology or Organizational Development), and may be presented by individuals or by teams of two or more. Posters will be judged by a panel of experts from the International Society for Performance Improvement (ISPI), the Association for Talent Development (ATD), and the New Mexico Evaluators for best IT and OD posters.

- Posters can be based on research, class projects, internships, directed readings, independent studies, portfolio, and teaching projects.

Submission Directions and Deadline

Those interested in presenting at the Expo should:
1. Complete the following proposal form
2. Attach a 250 word abstract
3. Email both to Bob Grassberger, rgrass@unm.edu, by 5:00 p.m., April 13

When developing your proposal, please keep in mind:
- Submission of a proposal signifies your commitment to attend the event and present.
- Proposals may be submitted for individual presentations or as a team of presenters.
- The primary contact on submissions will be notified if selected by Monday, April 20.
OILS Expo Proposal Submission

Submission deadline: April 13, 2015

Please complete all sections of this form and email to Bob Grassberger, rgrass@unm.edu by Monday, April 13th at 5:00 p.m. Late proposals will not be considered.

Primary contact person  Email address  Phone number

___________________________________________________ ______________

Other presenters (if applicable)

☐ All program presenter(s) listed above agree that they are available on Friday, May 1, 2015 to attend and make the presentation if accepted.

Check current OILS status:
☐ Ph.D.  ☐ M.A.  ☐ 2+2

Presentation Title: ________________________________________________

Please select the category from below that best describes the focus of your proposal:

☐ Instructional Technology  ☐ Organizational Development

Presentation Abstract:
Attach a brief abstract (250 word maximum) describing your presentation. The abstract should be complete yet succinct.

Please check all equipment needed:
☐ Table for Poster  ☐ Easel for Poster  ☐ Other needs: ____________________________